

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

J. E. WENK, - EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1895

The President is a true Democrat in Pharaoh. The elections, as was the case of the miracles of Moses, merely harden his free trade inclinations.

The Democrats who are so confident the Republicans will not touch the Wilson-Gorman monstrosity are like boys whistling as they pass a graveyard. Their courage is ebbing fast.

SINCE the 5th inst. there don't seem to be so much worry about the third term proposition, and some of Crover's old political foes are perfectly satisfied to let him make the run.

GETTING ready for Congress on the part of the Administration means shifting all sorts of ugly questions on to the Republicans. But they are ready for them. They have the confidence of the people.

EX-SENATOR EDMUNDS states the truth bluntly when he says that "the trouble with us and our foreign policy is that we stand still while our competitors are at work"; but we will get a move on us in that respect as soon as we unload the present Administration.

THE anxiety on the part of Democratic leaders that the Republicans should secure revenue for the starving Government is in exact proportion to their hopes that in so doing the Republicans may make a false step. And this is what they call patriotism.

AFTER its memorial fight against "Caesarism" when General Grant was a candidate for a third nomination, the New York Herald has a large sized contract on hand in endeavoring to make it all clear that it would be perfectly right and proper for President Cleveland to be given a third term. The ponderous proviso that comes in here will readily suggest itself.—Blizzard.

A STORY is going the rounds, evidently meant to be in favor of Senator Brice, telling how he had to pawn his watch when on his wedding trip in order to pay his railroad fare from New York home for himself and bride. In connection with this incident the Franklin News is moved to wonder how many other fellows have since been obliged to pawn their watches to keep up the expenses of the Hon. Cal and his bride.

SENATOR LODGE has been telling our British cousins some unpalatable truths in regard to the Monroe doctrine. He says the people mean to enforce that doctrine, and he predicts that Congress at the coming session will pass a joint resolution to that effect. It is not probable that there is any member of Congress who will oppose such a resolution. There are some Anglomaniacs in newspaper offices who think it smart to imitate London journals and sneer at the Monroe doctrine, but those men no more represent American opinion than do criminals like Holmes and Durrant represent American morality. The British public cannot too soon become aware of that fact. Senator Lodge has done well in undecieving them, so far as he has been able to do so.

A NEW terror is arising in the financial situation. The bankers at the great money centers are getting scared at the wonderful increase of gold production. South Africa is now turning the yellow stuff out at the rate of 1,000,000 a week, and it is estimated that the world's production will be pushed to $200,000,000 a year. Mr. Cleveland may be trusted to take note of this and, if the Rothschilds and Wall street money-monsters so advise, may sound a note of warning against further gold coinage. Too much gold would hurt their business. The following from the Meadville Tribune is pertinent in this connection:

There is an idea prevalent that the Government has some kind of right to say how much money shall be coined. It is held that cheap money is to be guarded against by the Government, but that the price of everything else must be regulated by supply and demand. For instance, every man, woman and child may go at raising wheat, though it is certain that it will produce cheap wheat; or they may all go to raising sheep, which is certain to make cheap wool. The Government never interferes in these matters; but the moment the miners produce so much gold that this metal gets cheap and the dollar will not buy as much as it formerly bought, there will be a demand for a limitation to be placed on the amount of gold coined.

100,000 PERSONS DYING.

The awful massacres in Turkey seem to continue, notwithstanding the assembling of the warships of the great powers of Europe, and the sacrifice of christian people is simply appalling if reports can be relied upon. Following is one of the latest dispatches concerning the existing state of affairs:

LONDON, Nov. 18.—It is understood in well informed circles here today that the assembling of the British and foreign fleets in Salonica Bay is having a good effect upon the Turkish Government and that the Sultan has finally determined to make earnest efforts to put a stop to the bloodshed in Asia Minor. It is understood the Marquis of Salisbury has received assurances that the Sultan has dispatched commissioners to Asia Minor instructed to put in force as soon as practicable the reforms insisted upon by the powers and that beyond the assembling of the foreign fleets off Salonica the powers will take no further steps at present, being desirous of giving the Turkish Government every opportunity possible of restoring order in the disturbed districts without having recourse to measures which might add to the state of anarchy prevailing. The following telegram from Constantinople was received this morning by the Anglo-American Association.

"The Armenians are being massacred everywhere in Asia minor. Over 100,000 are dying of starvation and exposure. The Sassoun work of relief has closed. For God's sake, urge the Government to stop the most awful events of modern times. The Porte is powerless, as all the telegrams are under the palace officials, who have incited the massacre throughout Anatolia."

A dispatch received here from Rome to-day says that advices which have reached there from Constantinople announce that the agitation against the Christians of Northern Syria is extending and that massacres have occurred near Aleppo.

CONSTANTINOPLE, via Sofia, Nov. 18.—No details have yet been received here of the massacre of about 800 Armenians at Kharput or of the racking and burning of eight out of twelve of the buildings belonging to the American missionaries there. The United States Ambassador, Mr. Terrell, has telegraphed for particulars of the outbreak, as especially whether the eight American mission buildings were directly set on fire by the rioters or if they simply caught fire and were destroyed as the result of a general conflagration. The American and other missionaries at Bitlic have been compelled to return to Van under an escort of Turkish troops which was accorded them upon the strong representations of Mr. Terrell to the Porte. Further massacres are reported from Sivas and there is a report that 4,000 Armenians have been massacred at Gurun. Although the reports of this latter massacre are not confirmed the Turkish officials here admit that the Kurds have made two separate attacks upon the Armenians of that locality and that there was considerable loss of life due, according to the Turks, to the rioting of the Armenians which could not otherwise have been suppressed.

THE statistics of our foreign trade under the new tariff continue to look black for the United States. For the month of October there was an increase in imports of dutiable merchandise of $8,000,000, as compared with the corresponding month last year. To offset this there was an increase of only $2,609,961 in exports. In other words the balance is about $5,500,000 worse for the United States for the fourteenth month of the new tariff than it was for the second month. What the end will be at this rate of progression is not difficult to determine.

THE success of the New York horse show is a result which we can all contemplate with satisfaction. As Brother Charles A. Dana would say, the horse is a noble animal. Born and matured under proper conditions it becomes almost human in its intelligence, sympathies and affections. It has been known to discriminate excellently in its likes and dislikes, more so at times than man himself. We should say, too, if pressed to it, that the world would be better off if some dead horses were still alive and some alive men were dead. But that is a detail. At the New York show brains and beauty have been combined to pay tribute to this noble friend of man, and they have done it well. Electricity may supersede him finally at the plow, the mower and reaper and elsewhere where he has given splendid service, but it will be for economic reasons only. There will never come a time when he will not have admirers, lovers, friends.—Phila. Inquirer

THE official returns from every county in Pennsylvania have been received at the State Department and are as follows: Haywood, Republican, 456,745; Meyers, Democrat, 282,481; Perry, Prohibitionist, 20,778; Dawson, People's, 7,802; Anton, Socialist Labor, 1,320. Scattering, 31. Haywood's plurality, 174,264. The leading candidate for judge of the superior court on the Republican ticket is Judge Rice of Luzerne county, who polled 460,288. Smith, Democrat, is elected over Yerkes, his closest competitor, by 6,214 votes.

NOTICE TO NAVIGATORS.
The Allegheny Valley Railway Company will rebuild the three spans of their bridge crossing the Allegheny river at Oil City; commencing the erection of the trestle work of the south span about the latter part of August, placing trestle work under the middle and north spans at periods of about two weeks apart. Fallsworks will be in all three spans about October 15th, but in about two weeks thereafter the south span of the bridge will be again reopened for navigation. The customary red lights will be placed on the upstream side at each pier.

The Philadelphia Press
For 1896.

Pennsylvania's greatest Republican family newspaper, The Philadelphia Press, will enter upon the new year under the most favorable conditions of its history.

A powerful agent in the national community, it is now more than ever a leader in news and able comment.

Its various departments have during the past year been greatly strengthened.

Pennsylvania is covered county by county, city by city, town by town. No other newspaper covers the State so well.

The Woman's Page of The Press has become one of its most prominent features and is eagerly sought by ladies.

In the matter of Amateur Sports The Press is also far in the lead and publishes more news on that subject than any other paper in the country.

The subscription price of The Press, per year, is: Daily, six dollars; Daily and Sunday, eight dollars; Weekly, one dollar.

The Press is the greatest want medium in Philadelphia and gives the lowest rates on that class of advertising.
